

Red Squirrels United Autumn 2018 newsletter

Welcome to the autumn 2018 email newsletter! If you would like to get more involved and volunteer with your local red squirrel conservation projects do get in touch with the following partners:

Northumberland Wildlife Trust: red.squirrels@northwt.org.uk

Lancashire Wildlife Trust: red.squirrel@lancswt.org.uk

Red Squirrels Trust Wales: angleseysquirrels@hotmail.co.uk

The Wildlife Trust for South and West Wales: info@welshwildlife.org

Ulster Wildlife: redsquirrels@ulsterwildlife.org

Mammal Symposium: 9-10 November 2018

The Mammal Society is hosting the annual event in London. The theme of the day is non-native mammals in Britain. RSU Programme Manager, Nikki Robinson will be speaking at the event along with Dr Mariella Marzano from Forest Research and Dr Aileen Mill from Newcastle University. Book your place here

New blog: a journey of red squirrel survival

Red Squirrel Ranger, Becky Clews-Robert gives an update on the conservation work being undertaken by Red Squirrels Trust Wales

Red Squirrels UNITED

Life

heritage lottery fund

LOTTERY FUNDED

LIFE14 NAT/UK/000467

Save the date

Red Squirrels United Knowledge Fair
Saturday 23 - Sunday 24 March 2019
Southport, Merseyside

Booking will open in December

rsu@wildlifetrusts.org

© Paul Harry Photography